

Catarina De Hoyos-Gilbert's Bio

Catarina is from San Antonio, Texas, and her origins stem from Spain. Catarina earned a scholarship to Boston University and became the first person in her family to earn a college degree. Catarina also attended Johns Hopkins University where she graduated Magna Cum Laude and received her Masters in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing.

Before becoming a full-time entrepreneur with Mary Kay Cosmetics, Catarina worked for Robert Half International as a Division Director. Through her leadership, her team quadrupled the division's revenues earning her the recognition as one of the Top Ten Division Directors in the world.

Today, her Mary Kay unit is over 90 people strong, she has earned two Mary Kay Career Cars and two diamond rings along with numerous other prizes such as designer handbags and a Trip to Cabo San Lucas.

Continuing to dream big, her plan is to earn a Pink Cadillac, to expand her business overseas to Mexico and to become a National Sales Director while devoting herself to her family and community and hopefully in the near future, adopting a precious little girl.

Catarina has a 5-year old son named Alex and has been married to her loving husband Steve for over 14 years.
