~Boundless Spirituality and Joyful Celebration

Join Us For a Spring Retreat!

Thank you for your continuing interest in Esperanza Interfaith Center. Interfaith respects, honors and celebrates all spiritual and religious paths. Join us. Rejoice in all spiritual paths on Saturday, May 22nd!

Focus: Deep Rest & Complete Happiness

May 22, 2010, from 9:30 am—3 pm.

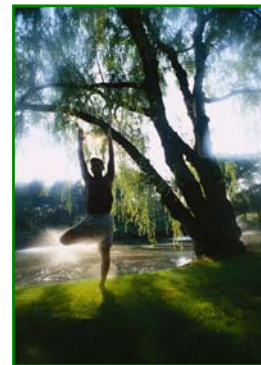

Esperanza Interfaith Center

1217 Leisure Ave., Tampa, FL 33613.

(Love Offering $30 members, $40 non-members)

Come away, relax, and rest. Enjoy our gorgeous two acres on a lake, while you meditate on self care and trust. Prayer, meditation, sharing, quiet time, and arts & crafts will help you drift into a state of rest. A past participant said:

"I can't believe that 5 hours of rest and quiet could make such a great impact in my mood and energy. I feel revived!"

Guided By:

Reverend Maria Pierre, Spiritual Director

Reverend Maria is an Ordained Interfaith Minister and Spiritual Counselor who has been leading retreats for over 20 years. She has held seasonal retreats at her beautiful, lakefront center in Tampa for 10 years. As a spiritual counselor, Rev. Maria is committed to helping individuals achieve peace in their lives. She is a graduate of Harvard University and ordained in Interfaith Seminary of the United Kingdom.

Special Guest Presenter:

Ani Crane, Professional Matchmaker

Ani Crane has a wealth of life experience as a mother of five. Her career includes experience as an English teacher in New York City, a psychic in Virginia Beach, and a professional matchmaker in Tampa Bay. Her burning curiosity about relationships fueled her drive to launch the Match Making Muse organization. Over the past 25 years, she has conducted research on relationships and refines her teachings with leading-edge findings. Ani holds a B.A. in Communications/Education and an M.A. in Theater Arts.
